

50 interesting facts about the Gallery of Modern Art

16. The smallest painting in the collection is John Duncan Fergusson's tiny oil painting Bank of Scotland from Princes Street Gardens (about 1910). Painted on board, it measures just 13.7 x 11.1cm. It was presented by an anonymous donor in 2006. The smallest drawing is Paul Chiappe's Untitled 6 (2007). A pencil drawing measuring just 3 x 5cm, it portrays 46 figures, in microscopic detail.

http://www.nationalgalleries.org/collection/in_focus/4:18430/18413/18424